PARENT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Important terms to consider BEFORE applying for music lessons

- I acknowledge that music lessons take place during academic classes and I cannot choose which academic class my child misses in any given week.
- I acknowledge that if my child plays any of the following, all brass, woodwind, drums and strings that when considered ready by the teacher, they will take part in the extra ensembles either before or after school
- I acknowledge that my child will be responsible for attending music lessons independently as academic teachers do not remind pupils of upcoming music lessons during their academic classes.
- I acknowledge that missed music lessons without valid reasons will not be rescheduled.
- I acknowledge that if my child is absent due to sick leave, private appointments or extended family holidays the missed music lessons will not be rescheduled.
- All pupils must purchase lesson books in a timely fashion recommended by their Music Teacher.
